revolution

Small Group Discussion

The Week of: Nov. 18, 2026

What's your life like:

Have you ever had a job or chore where you served people — working at a restaurant, babysitting, reffing, bagging groceries? What's the wildest story you've got from it? (No judgment if yours involves a Mini Cooper and a parking ramp wall.)

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message:

- We wrapped up Five Values with the last one: Serve Others. We look the most like Jesus when we serve, and when we serve others, we're really serving God.

Bible Verses

- John 13:3-5, 14–15; Matthew 25:37–40; 1 Peter 4:10–11

Discussion Questions

1. Who is someone who has served you really well: a parent, coach, teacher, friend? What did they do, and how did it make you feel?
2. Read John 13:3–15 out loud, taking turns by verse.
3. In Jesus' day, washing feet was a dirty, nasty job only the lowest servants did. Verse 3 says Jesus knew he had authority over everything and then he grabbed a towel. Why do you think John puts those two things side by side? What does that say about how Jesus uses power?
4. In verses 14–15, Jesus says we "ought to" wash each other's feet and follow his example. What's the difference between serving being a nice idea and serving being part of what it means to follow Jesus?
5. Read Matthew 25:37–40. Jesus says when we serve "the least of these," we're serving him. Who are the people at your school, on your team, or in your family who often get overlooked?
6. Read 1 Peter 4:10–11. Which of the three hurdles from tonight stops you the most? "I don't know what to do," "I can't help everyone," or "I'll start serving when ___"? How would you finish that last sentence?

Now what:

Do for one what you wish you could do for everyone. This week, pick one act of service and do it without being asked: do the dishes, sit with the kid eating alone at lunch, pick up trash in the hallway, or help a sibling with something. If you signed up at the serve fair tonight, tell the group where you're serving. Next week, come ready to share what you did and what happened.