Yes No

If yes, please explain.

To become a Group Leader, there are some non-negotiables. If you feel any hesitation at all making these affirmations, it would be better for you to be a group member rather than a Group Leader. If, however, you agree with these statements, indicate so with your initials in the space provided.

GROUP LEADER PERSONAL EXPECTATIONS (please initial below)

- _____ Be committed to a growing, daily relationship with Jesus Christ.
- _____ Refrain from drugs or alcohol abuse.
- _____ Refrain from sexual impurity (adultery, fornication, pre-marital sex, homosexual activities, living together before marriage).
- _____ Refrain from any ongoing pattern of sin.
- _____ Make sure you are not addicted to any compulsive behavior that is unhealthy (such as gambling, pornography, etc).
- _____ Lead an exemplary Christian lifestyle—so that group members watching you will see a sincere believer growing toward maturity.

GENERAL GROUP LEADER EXPECTATIONS (please initial below)

- _____ Attend Eagle Brook Church during the weekend
- _____ Be moving towards membership, if not one already
- _____ Attend Fall and Spring Leader’s Training
- _____ Attend all three Group Huddles with your Group Coach
- _____ Keep your group updated by using our online data forms in the Group's Leader's Corner.

I have read the Group Leader position description and know what is expected of me as a leader. I also will adhere to the expectations listed above and understand that the Groups Ministry has the right to remove me at any time if deemed necessary.
