

Small Group Discussion

The Week of:

Oct. 28, 2026

What's your life like:

Would you rather do a big school assignment by yourself or as a group project? What's your best (or worst) group project story?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message:

- We're continuing our series "5 Values to Live By," and this week's value is Connect in Community. Connection isn't a nice extra you get around to when you have time. It's how God wired us.

Bible Verses: Genesis 1:26, 1 Corinthians 12:12-21

Discussion Questions

1. Before we read, think of a time you were part of a team, band, cast, or friend group that was better together than alone. What made it work?
2. Let's read 1 Corinthians 12:12-21 aloud, taking turns by verse. Why do people sometimes feel they don't belong or aren't needed? Which lie is easier for you to believe: "They don't need me" or "I don't need them"?
3. In Genesis 1:26, God says, "Let us make human beings in our image." God created us for connection. How does seeing connection as part of God's design for you change your perspective?
4. Romans 12:15 tells us to rejoice with those who rejoice and mourn with those who mourn. Who celebrates your wins with you? Which is harder for you: celebrating a friend's success or showing up when they're hurting? Why?
5. Proverbs 27:5-6 teaches that honest correction from a friend is valuable. Who lovingly challenges you or reminds you of God's truth when you need it? Are you that kind of friend to others?
6. Galatians 6:2 tells us to carry each other's burdens. Who in your life is carrying something heavy right now, and what's one way you could help? If you're struggling, who could you let in?

Now what:

- This week, be the kind of community you want to have. Pick one person and do one of the three things we talked about: celebrate a win of theirs (even with a quick text), say something they need to hear (an encouragement, a truth, or a gentle challenge), or show up for them in something they're struggling with. Come back next week ready to share who you picked and what happened.
